The form consists of three identical sets of writing lines. Each set is composed of three horizontal white lines. The top line of each set is a trapezoid that is wider on the left and tapers to the right, ending in a sharp arrowhead pointing to the right. Below this top line are two parallel horizontal lines of the same length, creating a space for writing. The entire form is set against a light blue background. In the top right corner of the background is a yellow sun with rays. On the right edge of the top set of lines is a small yellow and black bird. On the left edge of the bottom set of lines is a small red and black bird.
